

C.P.R. Employees to Picnic In Bassano on Sat. July 30th

C.P.R. employees on the Medicine Hat Division will participate in a picnic on Saturday, July 30th, when the annual picnic of that Company's employees will be held at the local Sports Grounds. The decision to hold the picnic at Bassano was reached last week-end when officials of the Company met members of the local Board of Trade and inspected the splendid facilities offered at Bassano.

Between 1,200 and 1,500 men, women and children will be present for the picnic at Bassano at 12.30 p.m. and will arrive in Bassano at approximately 1 p.m. Upon arriving here a parade of all the passengers will be formed and they will march from the station, along main street, to the Sports Grounds west of the school. The parade will be led by the employees own band and orchestra.

Upon arriving at the Sports Grounds athletic events of all kinds and descriptions will get under way. There will be races and jumps for the children and adults, and cash prizes are being awarded to the winners. Football and baseball games will be played between teams from different departments of the Company.

Through the co-operation of the local Tennis Club, the employees will use the tennis courts to conduct a tournament. The swimming pool will also prove a popular attraction for the visitors and is being thrown open to their use.

At lunch time a regular picnic will be held. J. Hironaka, local baker, is supplying the lunch boxes for all and will be kept busy dishing out the "hot dogs".

To wind up the day, the employees will hold a dance in the Carling Club from 7 to 9 p.m., their own orchestra supplying the music. The sports train will leave Bassano at 9.30 p.m. for Medicine Hat.

It is understood that special arrangements are being made to accept employees out to the Bassano Dam. A small fee will probably be charged those wishing to make the trip.

The Board of Trade are co-operating in their utmost in seeing that the employees have a really enjoyable time. They are planning on connecting the decorative street lights and placing the banners and streamers along the main street, as on other special occasions.

REPAIRING OF MASONIC HALL GETS UNDER WAY

Work has commenced upon the Masonic Hall, to put it back in shape again after the extensive damage that was done to the fire. The fire, which broke out last Tuesday night, caused within an acre of burning the building to the ground and probably would have if it had not been for the prompt action of the local fire brigade. The decision to repair the building was taken at a recent meeting and the contract was let to H. A. Holmes, Contractor, of Bassano.

The strains of the wedding march played by Miss Margaret Allen, at the stroke of twelve, the bride descended the stairs on the arm of her father. She was attended by her sisters, Mrs. K. G. Enjoyable Time Had At Gem Weiner Roast Held Last Saturday Night

Those who were fortunate enough to be present at the Weiner Roast and Sports held at the Stampedo Grounds on Saturday evening, July 11th, will agree that it was probably the most successful and enjoyable affair yet held in Gem since the first Weiner Roast. A surprising number of people turned out, despite the extremely high season, to help make the program a real success. Sports, dancing, and socializing were the main features of the evening.

Gem Citizens Realize Ambition; Work Commenced on New Hall

Gem Colony is soon to have a Community Hall. This much needed improvement to that district has been the aim of the people living there, and at last the work has begun. Countess and Lathion, both of which are much smaller than Gem, have had Community Halls for years, while Gem has had to hold all its entertainments in the school house. Because it was possible to get away from the school house is probably the reason why nothing has been done in the past other than this line, but this arrangement has been far from satisfactory.

For years it has been the hope of Gem people that "some day" they would get a hall, but recently they decided that they would never get one without making a determined effort. They decided that they would have other things to do as well as community work, and good ones.

There are two organizations in Gem that are responsible for their present plans. These are the Community Club, which was organized years ago and of which the officers are Mr. J. P. Royer (Pres.), Mr. L. D. Starnes (Sec.), G. Dickman, W. Pollock, and C. Vile, (Exec.) Last fall fresh impetus was given to the plan when Mr. Dickman, Chairman of the Community Club, was elected President of the Gem Citizens' Association.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Howe, of Arem, visited up to Gadsby and attended the wedding last night.

It raised 75¢ of an inch over the week-end in Hunsar. More rainfall is reported north of the village.

Miss Nettie Letendre is holding day with relatives at Pincher Creek.

THE OKOTOKS MEETING

Following his tactical error of invading Saskatchewan Mr. Aberhart committed another by deciding to conduct a speaking tour in Okotoks. This was some time after the election in our neighboring Province. However, does not justify in any degree the conduct of certain people in conducting themselves as they did at Mr. Aberhart's meeting in Okotoks, when he was forced to discontinue, or, at any rate cut short, his address through constant interruptions and heckling.

There are some able public speakers, who rather revel at the prospect of such a meeting. Probably the best example of this in Canadian public life was the performance of R. B. Bennett at his meeting in Vancouver in 1935, when by sheer force of personality and power he quelled a mob more dangerous by far than that which faced Mr. Aberhart.

It has become common knowledge that the Premier does not like heckling. He avoids debate even in the Legislature. He likes to have the whole say, and dictate the last word on almost any subject. In his position as a teacher he expounds without contradiction, but he has found out that in public life, his path is not so rosy, nor his utterances accepted so unquestioningly.

Apart from that there can be no justification for the conduct of a part of his audience at a teacher's meeting without admitting that the provocation and the temptation may have been great. As a matter of fact, if these who interrupted were seeking to do the Premier harm, they may have failed. Persistent recurrences of this sort of thing will inevitably drive decent people to his defence—people who otherwise might oppose him. The Premier himself is entitled to free speech, even though he may have sought to muzzle the press, hates heckling, and avoids debate.

AN EDITORIAL COINCIDENCE

Voicing similar thoughts on current subjects in language almost the same is not an unusual occurrence in newspaper life. It is indeed rather common, and quite often occurs purely by accident. But when the subject dealt with by two papers published on the same day is such an important one as "Talent and Fact," without any knowledge of what the other fellow intends publishing, then it is a strange coincidence.

On this subject in its issue of the 7th inst, The Brooks Bulletin had this to say:

Talent is something, but fact is everything. Fact is not a secondary, but is the life of all live sense. It is the open eye, the quick ear, the judging taste, the keen smell and the lively touch. It is the surmounter of most difficulties, the remover of most obstacles.

On the same subject the Recorder had this to say:

"Conscious, perhaps of ability above that of some of their fellow men, capable of generosity and affection able and willing to serve without hope or expectation of reward, many wonder why success fails to crown their efforts or dislodge following their every action. They probably possess no fact, that fault that taints all their good like a dead dog in a green lane."

Talent is power. Talent knows what to do. Fortune is to the man who having talent possesses also fact. Fact is skill and skill knows how to do it. But if fact, in the absence of superior talent is to quote G. H. Lormier, merely "the knack of keeping quiet at the right time of being so agreeable yourself that no one can be disagreeable to you; of making inferiority feel like equality" then it snacks of diplomatic hypocrisy—that kind which adorns and follows religiously the subject and nevertheless true maxim that "a drop of honey catches more flies than a gallon of gall."

That may be diplomacy which, without some measure of talent, in the eyes of discerning men, should be properly assessed. Likewise it might make the road easier for some, if discerning men were recognizing some measure of talent in their fellow men unaccompanied by the saving grace of fact, would exercise more of that desirable quality themselves.

ACHIEVEMENT

"Few know of life's beginnings; men behold
The goal achieved—the warrior, when his sword
Flashes red triumph in the noonday sun;
The poet, when his lyre hangs on the palm,
The statesman, when the crowd proclaims his voice
And mould opinion on his gilded tongue.
They count not life's first steps, and never think
Upon the many miserable hours
When hope deferred was sickness to the heart.
They reckon not the battle and the march,
The long privations of a wasted youth;
They never see the banner 'till unfurled,
What are to them the solitary nights
Passed pale and anxious by the sickly lamp,
Till the young poet wins the world at last
To listen to the music long his own.
The crowd attend the statesman's fiery mind
That makes their destiny; but they do not trace
Its struggle or its early expectancy.
Hard are life's early steps; and, but that youth
Is buoyant, confident and strong in hope,
Men would behold its threshold and despair."

From "Thoughts That Inspire."

ANOTHER MONETARY ADVENTURE

Another Monetary adventure into the realm of finance and banking is presaged by the announcement that the Provincial Government is contemplating another issue of script and the establishment of credit unions.

Albertans have had some experience with scrip. It failed miserably two years ago. Any such scheme will fail again even though it be minus the objectionable stamp features. It will fail for precisely and exactly the same reason—lack of confidence. Money in order to function must pass freely from hand to hand in meeting the transactions of everyday life. Confidence is therefore absolutely essential. Some pretension of what may occur has happened already. We find the Premier urging, in characteristic fashion, the people to accept scrip as money as freely as they accept cash. It may be presumed that on this occasion as distinct from the last adventure, the Premier and Members of his Cabinet will follow their own advice.

On the matter of the establishment of credit unions it is presumed that they will take the place of the Chartered Banks,

"O WAD SOME POWER THE GIFTIE GIE US TO SEE OURSELVES AS OTHERS SEE US"—Burns.

From Our Exchange Columns

A LIBERAL BUDGET

It cannot be denied that the supporters of free trade or lower tariffs, especially in Western Canada, were bitterly disappointed in the Dunning Budget brought down last week and finally approved in the House of Commons. This is the third time since the King Government took office that Western Liberals found themselves embarrassed when asked to explain the difference between the High-tariff R. B. Bennett and the Low-tariff W. L. Mackenzie King. Such tariff positions are have been made in the past three years are relatively trifling. It is no wonder that trouble are said to have arisen in the Liberal caucus at Ottawa.

Of course, Alberta cannot complain very much. This province has not elected a majority of low tariff members for 17 years and in fact, even today has but one low tariff man in the House of Commons—Jas. A. McKinnon, of West Edmonton.—Vegreville Observer.

NIGHT SHIFT

POSITION WANTED—Steady night work on "doms, weight 160 pounds, height 5'10", power, muscles, expert lumberman; used to hard labor and overtime. Labor of wife and four children also included.

Secretary Jokes has accepted the application. Six hundred of these workers have been hired at $8 each and are being put to work on a series of check dams which will prevent soil erosion and increase watering facilities in the state of Idaho. According to report, these governmental employees are worth at least 38 times the initial cost of trapping and transportation.

Because the beaver is a modest sort this is a neat deed, without splash. Modest are apt to forget his importance his dignity and antiquity. But the Indians didn't. According to American Indian legend, the world was originally made by gigantic beavers, possessors of superhuman power. Even today some tribes proudly claim descent from the beaver.

"Man has harassed the fides," people have exclaimed with great woebegone, but for a moment the beaver has been at work, building a family tradition of co-operative energy while being down forced to work from deep and ancient meadows hush by harassing streams—Christian Science Monitor.

SAVE ALBERTA FIRST

The motto for any political party or group that aims to take over the reins of government in this province should be "Save Alberta First." That should be uppermost in the minds of those who ponder over the situation in this province. The pitiful spectacle that the political and pseudo-economic theories home verity and imported have made of our fair province in the eyes of the world during the past three years is something that demands thoughtful consideration, mature judgement and concerted action by those who still believe that the obligations of a people or an individual honored and dealt with in an honorable and honest way. Repudiation, reneging, and dishonesty is foreign to the make-up of Albertans. Reneging and renegeing with the consent of all parties interested is honorable. Arbitrary action is not. A new start, a clean start, is what Alberta needs. But you must "Save Alberta First."—Viking News.

INTEREST FREE LOANS

Farmers in Alberta have been promised interest free loans. That of course would be a boon. No other country in the world has been able to successfully perform such a miracle and up to date we have no information whatever as to how this very attractive plan could actually be translated into reality in our west. In the meantime then, we are forced to live and function with existing conditions and conditions of credit as best we can, nourishing the hope that the millennium of free money will arrive some day. At any rate, emancipation from the payment of interest is nowhere in sight. Our hopes are merely based on an unworkable theory.

Such being the case, there is no sense in deliberately destroying whatever slim credit resources we still have available. No sensible and honest person pays the least attention to a moratorium. A debtor who can pay, will pay. Those with the best intentions cannot pay, must simply be forced until they can. Harassing the lender by every conceivable obstruction merely serves to still further complicate the situation. As the above article very appropriately points out we cannot "both have our cake and eat it."—Farm and Ranch Review.

MINUTIES

(Taken from the Chilliwack Progress)

Not very long ago President Roosevelt in referring to the overwhelming domination of the national life by industrial holdings represented only five per cent of the wealth of the country, made classic reference to the "tail wagging the dog."

Such a reference made a strong appeal to the general public. They like to think of their president as being emphatically outspoken. And they appreciate any analogy that represents them as being the body and backbone of the country. And in the final analysis that is just what they are.

But still the "tail wags the dog."

In Hitlerized Germany today the situation is the reverse. The totalitarian state, in theory at least, calls for national subservience to that state, and a dictatorial directing hand whose power is absolute. There can be no talk of minority interests since all such are necessarily subordinate to the state.

The state is all powerful.

The dog wags the tail.

should the latter withdraw from the Province. Ordinarily credit unions ought to succeed if they are established in industrial centres where there are many dealings in small savings and loan accounts, which the Banks would not handle. Qualified authorities claim that they do not and cannot replace the Banks, but on the other hand depend largely on the Banks. Preliminary regulations have been published in the Alberta Gazette in order to permit study of the method of operating these institutions. That may be good mental exercise but unless the Government is satisfied that the currency of these credit unions will be accepted freely in the money markets of the Dominion, if not in the shops then they will not succeed in performing the functions of the Banks because of lack of confidence.

EXERCISE AND REST

It appears to be necessary to remind many persons of the need for daily exercise of the body. Exercise tends to strengthen the muscles of the body, including the heart which is a muscular organ. Exercise deepens and increases respiration, produces heat, induces perspiration and develops the motor and sensory centres of the brain.

If the food which we eat is to be properly digested, and used for the nutrition of the body, we must exercise. If the elimination from bowels and bladder is to be in proper order, we must exercise. It is perhaps a good working rule to say that the normal individual should exercise to the point of perspiration once a day.

We should walk sometimes in place of riding, play some games and sweat them through the week, not concentrate them all on Saturday. On the other hand, we should not forget the need of rest. Perhaps there are more of us in need of rest than of exercise. Children require great deal of rest, freedom from activity and long hours of sleep in order that they may grow and develop healthy minds in healthy bodies. The adult needs rest in order to repair the wear and tear of daily life, and to prepare for the days ahead.

A quantity of our activities are without any particular interest to us. They are largely a matter of doing something as evidence of our inability to be still, and to enjoy ourselves quietly and restfully in relaxation.

We must realize that the possibilities of health depend, in large measure upon ourselves. If we would have health, we must be prepared to make the necessary effort to secure the exercise we need and to establish habits of living which permit of sufficient rest and sleep. Neglect means poor health. If not actual disease, it means living our lives below the standard which we are capable of attaining. It means more worry and unhappiness.

Health is worth the effort, but we must make the effort ourselves.

Tennis Club Visits Gleichen

On Sunday, last, the Bassano Tennis Club was the guest of the Gleichen Club, when an inter-town tournament was played. The games were very keenly contested, and all resulted in very close scores. Of the 15 games played, Bassano won 11.

The locals reported a very enjoyable and certain appreciation of the hospitality extended by the Gleichen players. Following the tournament, a lunch was served on the beautiful lawn of Mr. Yates.

A return tournament was scheduled to be played in Bassano on Wednesday afternoon, but due to circumstances, the Gleichen players were unable to make the trip.

Instead a local tournament was run off on Wednesday afternoon, games being played from early afternoon till dark.

Gem Notes

Pete Smith is back on the lease east of the Colpo, with over 500 head of H. MacLean cattle. He hopes Pete keeps on boy's tickets on the hope chest.

Gem community congratulates Mr. Miller on the occasion of his 79th birthday on July 13th.

"What do you think of these short skirts the girls wear now?"
"I should define them as knee plus skirts."

Prim Old Clerk (to manager): "The painters are in my room just now, Mr. Have you anywhere else I could squeeze a typist for a few days?"

Teacher: "Johnny, I think I'll keep you in after school."
Johnny: "If you don't, do you any good teacher, I'm a woman-hater."

Some companies have instructed their drivers to show every possible courtesy on the highway, it was felt that prompt action was warranted to avoid complaints and bring about safer conditions for motorists.

Arrowwood

Mr. Paul Norton received the sad news on Tuesday of the death of his sister, Mrs. Shultz, of Oklahoma. Mr. Norton left immediately to attend the funeral.

Miss Andrews, teacher of the primary room, has sent in her resignation. Miss Andrews has been here for several years, and our loss will be her gain.

We are pleased to report that Miss Marjorie Leonard, R.N., is on the permanent staff of nursing in the Community Hospital.

The Arrowwood Girl Guides returned home on Tuesday morning, all reporting a real good time. A full report of their camping will be published next week.

Mrs. H. Miller has her sister visiting with her for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Earl have moved onto the M. Finn farm, where they will reside in the future.

Friends of Miss Eleanor Jeunpho will receive with satisfaction the news that she has been invited to remain on the staff of the Stueler High School with a substantial increase in salary. She has also been appointed to the Board of Examiners to mark the high school examination papers. Miss Jeunpho was former Principal here in Arrowwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Amey of Berrywater were visitors of the Board's on Friday.

Mrs. R. H. Bishop and son Marvin left for Edmonton on Tuesday evening where they will visit with her parents.

Board of Trade Meet on Wed.

Seventeen members of the local Board of Trade gathered in the Royal Cafe on Wednesday afternoon when the Board sat at its regular meeting. Due to the absence of the president and the vice-president, Mr. Jas. Johnston was asked to take the chair.

Several matters of importance were brought up before the Board, amongst these being a request that the Board assist in the construction of a grain loading platform near Laidlaw. The executive were entrusted to take charge of this matter, and to act as they thought advisable.

The Secretary read a report on the July 1st Stampede which showed that a very favorable sum had been realized for the efforts put forth by members. Upon a motion, the various committees appointed for the day were extended a very hearty vote of thanks.

The Dance Committee reported that all expenses at the rink had now been cleared up, and that in the future, any profit made at the dances would go into the treasury.

A report was given on the proposed C.P.R. Picnic at Bassano on the 10th of July, and it was decided that no effort should be spared in preparing an enjoyable day for the large number of guests.

The meeting adjourned at approximately 2 p.m.
